

History of Hainault Forest

Sunday 2nd November 10.00am - 12.00 (approx)

A chance to learn the fascinating history of Hainault Forest from the last ice age. You might even get to play a few games along the way.

MEETING POINT: LB of Redbridge car park 2 ⑨

LEADER: Woodland Trust officer

Booking required at www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault/

Art in the Wood

Sunday 2nd November 11.00am - 1.00pm (approx)

Create an artistic masterpiece using only materials found in the wood and limited purely by your imagination. We'll be leaving the art in the wood as an outdoor art gallery for others to admire and add to.

MEETING POINT: Angel car park ①

LEADER: Woodland Trust officer

Booking required at
www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault/

Den building competition

Sunday 2nd November 2.00pm - 3.30pm (approx)

Den building competition for kids... okay parents you can help a bit! Prizes for the best den, the most imaginative design and the most waterproof!

MEETING POINT: Camelot car park ⑦

LEADER: Tony Chadwick, Woodland Trust

Booking required at
www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault/

Family Treasure Hunt with BBC Breathing Spaces

Sunday 2nd November 2.00pm - 4.00pm

Fun for all the family. Follow the clues and discover the treasure trove within Hainault Forest. Turn up any time between 2.00pm and 4.00pm. Take part in fun family nature activities from BBC Breathing Spaces.

MEETING POINT: Angel car park ①

LEADER: Woodland Trust officer

Booking required at
www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault/

NB: Please note that more walks and activities will be added as they are confirmed. For the latest details or any updates, please check our website www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault/

Self guided walks available throughout the Hainault Forest Festival:

Orienteering: Maps are available from Hainault Forest Country Park Visitor Centre during normal opening hours (cost £1) or you can download for free from our website - www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault

Family treasure hunt: Maps are available from Hainault Forest Country Park Visitor Centre during normal opening hours (free) or you can download for free from our website - www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault

Local London Loop walk: Maps are available from Hainault Forest Country Park Visitor Centre during normal opening hours (free) or you can download for free from our website - www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault

Tree Trail: Discover some of the amazing trees in Hainault Forest, download the walking tour from our website - www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault

Geocaching: Downloadable GPS discovery details available from our website - www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault

Guided walk: A simple guided walk through Hainault Forest with fascinating facts and scintillating sites. Pick up a leaflet from the visitor centre or download details from our website - www.treeforall.org.uk/essex/hainault

Photographs Front cover, top and left small. Page 1. Page 6, top left and top right. Page 10 - Tony Chadwick, Woodland Trust; Front cover, centre small - WTPL, right small - WTPL/Brian Aldrich; Page 2 - WTPL/Nick Spurling; Page 6 top right - WTPL/Nick Spurling, bottom - WTPL/Deborah Morris; Page 9 - WTPL/Woodland Trust staff; Page 12 - WTPL; Page 14 - WTPL; Page 17 - istockphoto; Page 19 top - Epcot Images, bottom - WTPL/Nick Spurling.

Programme design by Redpoll Design 01778 348550

Printed on recycled paper. 3947 09/08